estate business.

TRADE REPORT

Bradstreet's on Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity:

"Little change is noted in the whole sale dry goods market. Several dealers have ceased active business to prepare for their usual inventories. Dealers in heavy and fancy groceries report satisfactory sales. Jobbers of toys and fancy goods continue active and some have done the largest business in their history for this zeason. Produce and provisions are in fair demand, but many buyers of staple lines continue conservative purchases, and this to some extent has rendered business to be marketed in moderate amounts and prices are well maintained considering the quality and condition. In North Carolina cotton is still being marketed in fair amounts, likelail trade is fair. Collections show improvement, though they continue slow in some lines."

IGNORDANT OF LAW

IGNORANT OF LAW

Peddler Did Not Knew It Was Wrong to Sell on Streets.

David Springer was fined $2.50 in the Police Court yesterday for peddling without a license, He arrived here Tuesday and was arrested by Policeman Tate, while traveling from house eo house defiring gas fixrures for sale. The prisoner claimed that he was ignorant of the law and would at once take out a license. Street Commissioner Henry Cohn and Police Commissioner Henry Cohn and Manning appealed for clemency, and the Police Justice remitted the fine. Mr. Cohn undertook to settle the costs and to see that Springer left the city at once.

Heard and Seen

in Public Places

Treasurers J. M. Curtis, of Nowport News: C. T. Smith, of Caroline, and B. Ford, of Cumberland, were callers at the Auditor's office yesterday.

J. C. Ramage and J. H. Beverley, of Alexandria: A. Wright, of Petersburg, and A. T. Lincoin and wife, of Marion, are among the Virginians registered at Murphy's.
